

Pucker up, guys

DRY or cracked lips are a sure-fire way to ruin your love life this Valentine's Day.

New to hit the market is Stella and Marco's all-male organic lip balm.

It soothes lips and offers men a rough and ready packaging and discreet size.

Made for men, it's a guaranteed boysenberry free-zone.

This therapeutic lip balm conditions, moisturises and tingles on the lips with a peppermint fresh scent. Key ingredients include shea butter, cocoa butter, macadamia oil, beeswax and Vitamin E for extra conditioning.

The small tin fits into the pocket of either your business pants, King Gees or stubbies.

Stella and Marco Bare Balm is 100 per cent organic (7g, $12.95). Check it out at www.stellaandmarco.com.au
